

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOUR SPOUSE OR DOMESTIC PARTNER'S ANNUAL ENROLLMENT DIFFERS FROM TOYS“R”US?

Coverage changes during your spouse or domestic partner's annual enrollment period is considered a qualifying life event. This means that you can make changes to some of your benefits without waiting until the next Toys“R”Us annual enrollment period. Remember, the Toys“R”Us benefit plan year is July 1 through June 30.

CHANGES YOU CAN MAKE

Below you will find a list of changes you can make to your benefit plans within 30 days of the date your spouse or domestic partner's new plan year begins due to their annual enrollment period.

Medical, Dental and Vision

- If you are currently enrolled, you may add your new spouse and your eligible children to your coverage. If you are not currently enrolled, you may elect coverage and add your new spouse and eligible children to your coverage.
- If you become covered under your spouse's plan, you may cancel your coverage and your eligible children's coverage.

Health Savings Account (HSA)

- If you are currently enrolled in a CDHP and have an opened HSA, an HSA employer contribution will be deposited into your Account if your coverage level increases (meaning if you change from team member only to team member plus 1 or more).
- If you enroll in a CDHP for the first time and open a HSA, an HSA employer contribution will be deposited into your Account (based on your coverage level) in the month your HSA is opened.
- If you drop your CDHP coverage, your HSA will be moved to an 'unaffiliated account status' with Payflex, the HSA Administrator. Because the Account is not part of the health plan sponsored by the Company, all the money—contributions made by the Company, your own contributions and any interest or investment earnings—belong to you.

- The Company pays the monthly maintenance fee while you are covered under a CDHP medical plan, however when you drop coverage, the Company will no longer pay the Account maintenance fees affiliated with your Account and it will become your responsibility to pay all of the HSA maintenance and transaction fees. You will receive a letter from Payflex, the HSA administrator that will provide more details on the process as well as information on who to contact with any questions.
