Summary of Material Modifications
Toys“R”Us, Inc. Benefit Program

This document serves as a Summary of Material Modifications (“SMM”) and supplements or modifies the information contained in the Toys“R”Us, Inc. Benefit Program Summary Plan Descriptions dated 2009. All plan and administrative updates in this SMM are in effect as of July 1, 2011. This SMM is a summary of the changes to the Toys“R”Us, Inc. Benefit Program. If there are any discrepancies between the information contained in this SMM and the official written Plan documents, the Plan documents will govern.

1. The following information modifies information in the Toys“R”Us, Inc. Benefit Program Administrative and Legal Summary Plan Description dated 2009.

Administrative and Legal

FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT:

Except to the extent otherwise provided in the Summary Plan Descriptions, the provisions provided in this document with respect to the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA) will apply. If you meet certain service requirements, you may be entitled to take a maximum of 12 weeks of unpaid leave each year for certain specified family and medical reasons under the FMLA. Upon your return to work after FMLA leave, you will be entitled to the position that you held when your FMLA leave began or an equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits and other terms and conditions of employment.

You must notify your Plan Administrator at least 30 days before the beginning of your leave if the leave is foreseeable. If the leave is not foreseeable, you must provide such notification as soon as possible. Please contact the Plan Administrator to determine whether you qualify for FMLA leave.

If you take leave under FMLA, you will be entitled during your leave to continue your benefits at the same coverage level in effect at the time of your leave. If you marry or have or adopt a child (or you otherwise acquire a new dependent) during your leave, your new spouse or dependent will also be eligible for coverage during your leave (if you continued your coverage under the Plan and such spouse or dependent meets the plan’s eligibility requirements). You will be responsible for paying your portion of these benefits at active team member rates while you are on leave. You will be required to pay your contributions for your benefits on a monthly basis (with after-tax dollars) in the manner required by the Company. Please contact your Plan Administrator for more information.

You will be eligible for new benefits that are offered by the Company during your leave. Your coverage will also be affected by any changes that the Company makes to the benefit plans and programs during your leave. If the costs for providing new or changed benefits increase during your leave, your contributions may increase accordingly.

When you return from your FMLA leave, you will continue your benefits in accordance with your coverage elections that were in effect immediately before your leave. You will be able to make coverage elections that differ from those that were in effect before your leave only if there is an annual open enrollment period at that time or you have a qualified life event.

FMLA Military Entitlements:

If you need to care for a family member who was injured or became ill while on active military duty, you may be entitled to up to 26 weeks of FMLA leave. Additionally, unpaid active duty leave may also be available. Any leave related to military duty or military illness or injury will be administered in keeping with applicable federal requirements.

Caregiver Leave

Caregiver leave, which is unpaid, will be granted to you in the event that you are needed to care for a family member who is an Armed Forces service member recovering from a serious illness or injury. If you are the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or nearest blood relative of a service member who is medically unfit to perform the duties of his office, grade, rank or rating, and the service member is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy, is in an outpatient status, or is on the temporary disability retired list, you may take job-protected leave in order to care for the service member.

Caregiver leave will not be provided in addition to FMLA leave taken for other reasons, and the 26-week caregiver leave may only be taken in a single 12-month period.

Active Duty Leave

If you are eligible for FMLA leave, active duty unpaid leave (when required by the government), will be granted if your family member has been called up to or engaged in active military duty. Under the active duty leave provision, the Company will grant up to 12 weeks of FMLA leave. This leave will be granted for events outlined in regulations, and the leave will be available if your spouse, son, daughter, or parent is on or is called into active duty against another military force. If you request this leave you must provide the Company with notice as soon as it is "reasonable and practicable" and you may be required to provide certification supporting the active duty of the affected family member.

If you have any questions regarding whether FMLA leave applies to you, you should contact your human resources representative.
