Eligibility and Enrollment

Employer Shared Responsibility

(Look-Back Measurement Method)

Employer Shared Responsibility is a component of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA) that requires employers to offer Minimum Essential Coverage (MEC) that is affordable and provides minimum value to all full-time team members that average 30+ hours of service per week or pay an excise tax.

The health plans Toys“R”Us offers provide MEC, are affordable and provide minimum value, each as defined by ACA. This means you will generally not be eligible for a government subsidy if you decide to waive company coverage and enroll in a plan on the health insurance marketplace. If you do receive a subsidy while eligible for our plans, you may be required to pay it back to the government.

Service hours include actual hours worked and non-working hours such as vacation, holidays and sick time. If you take an unpaid FMLA, unpaid jury duty or unpaid military leave of absence, the period of time you are on a leave will be excluded from the Standard Measurement Period.

As you read the eligibility provisions below, you may want to refer to Section VI, “Glossary of Key Terms,” at the end of this SPD for the definition of the capitalized terms.

I. ELIGIBILITY

- A. Non-variable Hour Team Members* – are in a benefits eligible class as of date of hire. Benefits begin after 30 days of service. See Section II - Enrollment for enrollment rules.

 Generally, you are a Non-Variable Hour Team Member if you are a non-exempt management team member (including Level IV 3+ and M14 and M15) or a full-time hourly team member.*

- B. Variable Hour Team Members* – Variable Hour Team Members are eligible if they average 30 or more Hours of Service during the applicable measurement period below:

- (1) Newly Hired Team Members – the applicable measurement period is your Initial Measurement Period; and
- (2) Ongoing Team Members – the applicable measurement period is the most recent Standard Measurement Period.

 Generally, you are a Variable Hour Team Member if you are a part-time hourly or seasonal team member.*

See Section II.C for eligibility rules when you are transitioning between the Initial Stability Period and the Standard Stability Period.

II. ENROLLMENT

A. NEWLY HIRED TEAM MEMBERS

- (1) Non-variable Hour Team Members – Non-variable Hour Team Members must enroll by the end of their 30-day waiting period.
- (2) Variable Hour Team Members – Variable Hour Team Members are not eligible for coverage until their initial measurement period ends. If they are deemed to be eligible during the Administrative Period following their Initial Measurement Period, they may enroll within 30 days of the first day of the Initial Stability Period.

- B. Ongoing Team Members – Ongoing Team Members will have an opportunity to enroll at the beginning of the plan year and will have 30 days to enroll. Coverage will become effective as of the first day of the next following Standard Stability Period (i.e., July 1).

Ongoing Team Members who fail to average 30 or more Hours of Service per week during the Standard Measurement Period are not eligible to enroll and will not be offered coverage during the Standard Stability Period. If such Ongoing Team Members were eligible for benefit coverage during the Standard Stability Period that includes the Annual Enrollment period, they will be offered continuation coverage under COBRA beginning as of the first day of the next Standard Stability Period.

C. Transitioning Team Members – The following rules apply when your Initial Stability Period and your Standard Stability Period overlap:

(1) Coverage During Initial Stability Period - If you averaged 30 or more Hours of Service per week during your Initial Measurement Period and elected benefit coverage, your benefit coverage will continue through the end of your Initial Stability Period, provided you pay timely and otherwise remain eligible.

(a) If you average 30 or more Hours of Service per week during your first Standard Measurement Period, benefit coverage will begin on the first day after the end of your Initial Stability Period and will continue through the end of the Standard Stability Period.

(b) If you do not average 30 or more Hours of Service per week during your first Standard Measurement Period, your benefit coverage will end on the last day of your Initial Stability Period and you will not be offered coverage for the remainder of the Standard Stability Period. You will not be eligible to enroll in benefit coverage unless you average 30 or more Hours of Service per week during a subsequent Standard Measurement Period. If you are enrolled in benefit coverage at the end of your Initial Stability Period, you will be offered continuation coverage under COBRA beginning as of the first day of the Standard Stability Period.

(2) No Coverage During Initial Stability Period - If you did not average 30 or more Hours of Service per week during your Initial Measurement Period, you will not be eligible to enroll in benefit coverage during your Initial Stability Period.

(a) If you average 30 or more Hours of Service per week during your first Standard Measurement Period, you will be eligible to enroll in benefit coverage effective as of the first day of your Standard Stability Period, even if that falls within your Initial Stability Period.

(b) If you do not average 30 or more Hours of Service per week during your first Standard Measurement Period, you will not be eligible to enroll in benefit coverage unless you average 30 or more Hours of Service per week during a subsequent Standard Measurement Period.

III. CHANGES IN EMPLOYMENT STATUS

A. Variable Hour Team Member to Non-Variable Hour Team Member – If you change employment status from a Variable Hour Team Member to a Non-variable Hour Team Member during your Initial Measurement Period, you will be eligible to enroll as of the earlier of:

(1) The first day of your Initial Stability Period, if you satisfy Section II.C(1); or

(2) The date of your change in employment status (but not earlier than your 31st day of employment).

B. Non-variable Hour Team Member to Variable Hour Team Member – If you change employment status from a Non-Variable Hour Team Member to a Variable Hour Team Member before you begin your first Standard Stability Period, you will remain eligible for benefit coverage until the beginning of your first Standard Stability Period, at which time your status as a Full-Time Team Member will be determined based on Hours of Service during the Standard Measurement Period.

C. Change in Employment Status During a Stability Period. If you change employment status during your Initial or Standard Stability Period, your benefits (or lack of benefits) will not change as a result.

Here are the same rules shown more simply:

If your status changes :	You will be eligible for benefits:	You will:
During your Initial Measurement Period: PT hourly/Seasonal (Variable Hour Employee) to FT hourly or Management (Non-variable Hour Employee)	On the earlier of: The date your employment status changes; or The first day of the Initial Measurement Period. Before start of first of first Standard Stability Period: FT hourly or Management (Non-variable Hour) to PT hourly/Seasonal (Variable Hour)	Benefits do not drop	Remain eligible through the start of the first Standard Stability Period. Hours will be re-measured during the Standard Measurement Period.
During a Stability Period: PT to FT; or FT to PT.	Without any change.	Be re-measured during the Standard Measurement Period.

IV. LEAVES OF ABSENCE

While you are on an approved leave of absence, you will remain eligible for benefit coverage as long as you remain employed and you make timely contributions, assuming you are otherwise eligible for, and enrolled in, such coverage.

V. REHIRES AND RETURNS FROM LEAVE OF ABSENCE

When you are rehired following termination of employment or when you return from an unpaid leave of absence, you will be treated as a New Team Member (e.g., subject to a new Initial Measurement Period or new 30-day waiting period, as applicable) if your period of no service lasted 13 weeks or longer.

If your period of no service was less than 31 days, you will be treated as a continuing team member, that is, as if you had not been gone. You will be automatically enrolled in all benefits that you had prior to your last termination date including life insurance benefits in which you were already approved.

If your period of no service was greater than 31 days but less than 13 weeks, you will be treated as a continuing team member, that is, as if you had not been gone. If you do not make changes to your benefits within 30 days of your rehire date, you will be automatically enrolled in all benefits that you had prior to your last termination date, excluding life insurance benefits in which you were approved prior to your last termination date. Any changes to Basic ($50,000 to 1x Salary), Supplemental and Spouse Life Insurance may be subject to Evidence of Insurability. Any newly added dependents will be subject to verification requirements.

Hours of Service may not be awarded for the period of no service when averaging your Hours of Service for the Initial or Standard Measurement Period that includes the date you return to active service.

Making Your Contributions

Your contributions are deducted from each paycheck. Contributions you make for Medical (including prescription drugs), HSA, Supplemental Benefits, Dental, Vision and Flexible Spending Accounts are made with pre-tax dollars.

Pre-tax dollars come out of your pay before federal income and Social Security taxes are withheld – and in most states, before state and local taxes are withheld. This gives your contributions a special tax advantage and lowers your taxable income, thereby lowering the actual cost to you.

Although pre-tax contributions reduce your taxable income, they generally will not affect other benefits related to your income. For example, Basic Life Insurance coverage will be calculated using your full annual salary prior to any pre-tax deductions.

By making pre-tax contributions, you may pay less in Social Security taxes, which could lower your Social Security benefits at retirement or in case of disability. However, any reduction in Social Security benefits should be minimal.

If you enroll for Supplemental Life, AD&D, and/or LTD, or Spouse and/or Child Life Insurance your contributions are made with after-tax dollars. After-tax dollars come out of your pay after all applicable taxes have been determined and withheld.

It is important to note that payroll deductions are not prorated based on when your coverage starts, or when it ends. Typically, coverage will end and deductions will be taken through the end of the pay period.

Note: Due to current tax laws, if you elect medical, vision or dental coverage for your domestic partner or domestic partner’s dependent children, the premium cost associated with your domestic partner’s coverage – including the Company’s share of the cost – will be reported on your W-2 as taxable income. There are some exceptions that may enable your domestic partner and your domestic’s partner’s child to qualify as your tax dependents for purposes of medical and dental coverage. Because tax rules are complex, you should consult with your tax advisor.

Enrolling If You Are Newly Eligible

You must enroll for the Company's health and welfare benefits within 30 days of becoming eligible. If you do not enroll within 30 days of the date you first become eligible for benefits, you will have only the Company-paid benefits for which you are eligible for the remainder of the plan year, unless you have a qualifying life event.

Annual Enrollment

One of the many advantages of the Company's health and welfare Benefit Program is the Annual Enrollment that takes place each spring. At that time, the Company will make available the information you need on RUsBenefits.com to make your elections. The decisions you make during the Annual Enrollment period will take effect the following July 1 and will stay in effect until you make a change during a subsequent Annual Enrollment period (with coverage changing the following July 1) or if you have a qualifying life event.

When Coverage Begins

Plans	Coverage Begins on
Medical (including prescription drug), Supplemental Benefits, Dental, Vision, Flexible Spending Accounts, Supplemental Life and AD&D Insurance, Spouse and Child Life Insurance, Supplemental Long-Term Disability (LTD)	The date you become eligible for benefits, provided you have enrolled within 30 days of that date*
Employee Assistance Program, Basic Life and AD&D Insurance, Basic LTD	The date you become eligible for these benefits*
*If you are absent on the day your coverage would begin, coverage (other than medical) begins on the first day you return to work. If EOI is pending for Supplemental or Spouse Life Insurance, the effective date of coverage is the date the EOI is approved by the Insurance company.

Coverage for your enrolled dependents begins when your coverage begins, provided you have enrolled them by the deadline provided to you by “R”Benefits Dependent Verification Services, and provided all the required documentation, including social security number. Otherwise, their coverage will not begin until the July 1 after the next Annual Enrollment period during which you enroll them, provided you meet all of the requirements to add them to coverage.

Benefit elections made during Annual Enrollment generally become effective on the following July 1.

Changing Your Enrollment Elections During the Year

Because you make your contributions for Medical, Supplemental Benefits, Dental, Vision and Flexible Spending Accounts with pre-tax dollars, the IRS does not permit you to make changes or cancel your coverage during the plan year unless you have a qualifying life event. Toys“R”Us, Inc. also applies this rule to Supplemental Life and Accidental Death and Dismemberment (AD&D) Insurance, Spouse and Child Life Insurance and Supplemental Long-Term Disability Insurance – even though you pay for this coverage using after-tax dollars. A qualifying life event includes, but is not limited to:

- A change in your legal marital status or domestic partner status
- The birth or adoption of a child
- A dependent’s loss of eligibility (because he/she reaches the age limit for coverage, for example)
- Death of a dependent
- A change in your spouse’s/domestic partner’s eligibility for coverage
- A change in your employment status that affects your eligibility for coverage (for example, if you are a part-time hourly team member and you become a full-time team member)
- A change in your address or work location that affects the plans that are available to you.

If you experience a qualifying life event, you can modify your coverage provided the change is consistent with the qualifying life event and you notify the “R”Benefits Service Center or log on to Workday and click the “R”Benefits button and complete the change within 30 days following the qualifying event. Otherwise, you must wait until the next Annual Enrollment to modify your coverage and/or add newly eligible dependents.

If you have or wish to elect Supplemental or Spouse Life Insurance, you may be asked to provide satisfactory Evidence of Insurability (EOI) to the Insurance Company. See the Life Insurance Summary Plan Description.

Special Enrollment Rights for Group Health Plans

If you, your spouse, domestic partner and/or dependent are entitled to special enrollment rights under one of the Medical, Supplemental Benefits, Dental, Vision or Limited Purpose FSA benefit options, an election change to correspond with the special enrollment right is permitted. Thus, for example, if an otherwise eligible employee declined enrollment in medical coverage for the employee or the employee's eligible dependents because of outside medical coverage and eligibility for such coverage is subsequently lost due to certain reasons (i.e., due to legal separation, divorce, death, termination of employment, reduction in hours, exhaustion of COBRA period, moving out of or no longer working in an HMO service area, or employer contributions for the coverage were terminated), the employee may be able to elect medical coverage under the Plan for the employee and his or her eligible dependents who lost such coverage.

Furthermore, if an otherwise eligible employee gains a new dependent as a result of marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption, the employee may also be able to enroll the employee, the employee's spouse, and the employee's newly acquired dependent, provided that a request for enrollment is made within 30 days from the date of the event; however, in cases where the special enrollment right is triggered by a loss of eligibility for Medicaid or the state's Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) or becoming eligible for premium assistance subsidy under Medicaid or CHIP, such request must be made within 60 days after such event. An election change that corresponds with a special enrollment must be prospective, unless the special enrollment is attributable to the birth, adoption, or placement for adoption of a child, which may be retroactive up to 30 days.

Also note that you are eligible to enroll in the medical (including the Limited Purpose FSA), dental, and/or vision benefit option outside of the open enrollment period if you or your eligible dependent: (i) is enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP and coverage is terminated due to a loss of eligibility for coverage under Medicaid or CHIP; or (ii) becomes eligible for a premium assistance subsidy under Medicaid or CHIP. However, you must request enrollment within 60 days after your Medicaid or CHIP coverage is terminated due to a loss of eligibility or you become eligible for premium assistance subsidy, as applicable.

Coverage During Approved Leaves of Absence

If you request and are approved for a leave of absence, and your job is protected under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) or the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA), you will be entitled to continue your health care coverage in accordance with the leave policies. Leave of Absence policies can be found on RUsBenefits.com.

Coverage While on an Approved Long-Term Disability

If your leave exceeds 26 weeks and you are eligible to receive long-term disability benefits, your coverage under other Company-sponsored benefits may continue as described below. Your employment will terminate after you have exhausted your maximum leave time available.

Benefit Plan(s)	If your employment is not terminated	If your employment is terminated

Paying For Coverage If You Are on a Paid Leave of Absence

(Family Leave may be protected under FMLA)

Your health and welfare benefits will continue to be deducted from your pay as long as you are receiving a regular paycheck.

Paying For Coverage If You Are on an Unpaid Leave of Absence

If you are on an unpaid leave of absence, you will receive coupons from Payflex and will be required to submit payment directly to Payflex. Failure to submit payment timely to Payflex may result in a loss of coverage.

For information on direct bill payments, please contact the following:

- “R”Benefits Service Center (1-844TRU-BENS)

If Your Pay is Reduced

If your pay is reduced for any reason, including a paid leave of absence, your health care contributions will continue as long as you remain an eligible team member and your salary is sufficient to cover any required contributions.

If your pay is not sufficient to cover your contributions, you will have an arrears balance for your benefit deductions. Once you have sufficient pay to cover the required contributions, the Deductions in Arrears Process will deduct your current pay period contribution, plus one additional pay period contribution until you are completely caught up.
