Privacy

Toys'R'Us places the highest level of importance on respecting and protecting the privacy of our customers and our team members. So that you are fully informed, the following information explains our information practices and the privacy aspects of this website. This website does not collect or use personal information. When you log into the website, you do so anonymously. Like many websites, we use technology, such as cookies, that allow us to make your visit easier.

Third parties

This website links to numerous third-party websites, including companies who administer or provide Toys'R'Us benefit programs. Some of these websites will require you to log on using a unique user name and password and some of the sites will use and display your personal information. Please familiarize yourself with the privacy practices of these websites. Toys'R'Us goes to great lengths to work with vendors who meet our standards for service, including data protection. However, Toys'R'Us is not responsible for content or information on any third-party websites.
